

“A NEW NAME.
A NEW VISION.
A NEW MISSION.”

DODRIDGE MILLER
PRESIDENT & CEO

Global Life is now Sagicor.

Our company has been reborn. With our new name and our new mission comes a new vision to create a great Caribbean company dedicated to improving the lives of all our people.

We're embarking on one of the most exciting changes in our history. Recently we welcomed Capital Life as part of the Global Life family and now we have become Sagicor. With Group assets exceeding US $1.4 billion and operations in 20 Caribbean countries and the US, we are the leading indigenous financial services company in the Caribbean.

Now we can do more for our clients than ever before. We will continue to protect our families, friends and neighbours when the worst happens. We will also help you share in the best life has to offer, through wise financial thinking and advice through all stages of life.

Sagicor will offer a world of new opportunities for you, as a customer of the organisation that will define the future of financial services in the Caribbean. It will mean new products and services from us to help you achieve your dreams – to protect and build your wealth.

Your success and the success of the company are bound together and we are bound for bigger and better things.

Welcome to an exciting future with Sagicor.
