investment options

What are the investment options?

Our three comprehensive investment retirement options will meet the needs of members allowing them the ability to match their risk profile and stage of life with suitable assets.

Option 1 - The Retirement Band Approach

Option 2 - The Blend and Monitor Approach

Option 3 - The Guaranteed Approach

The Retirement Band Approach

This option is designed based on the philosophy that not all members are sufficiently knowledgeable in the area of investments and as such are not fully equipped to make informed decisions about their investments. This simple all-in-one professionally managed solution, secures individuals with a worthwhile retirement alternative and keeps them appropriately invested throughout the retirement journey, utilizing target retirement year band funds. The funds are tailored to different retirement dates and are managed by Sagicor.

The Blend and Monitor Approach

This option is predicated on the notion that some categories of members have a greater appreciation of the investment environment. To this end, they want to play a greater role in how their funds are invested by determining their own investment mix in line with their retirement goals. These individuals wish to create their asset allocations in line with their balance of risk and reward. This approach allows the members the ability to customize their own retirement solutions.

The Guaranteed Approach

This option is based on the idea of preserving capital for the risk-averse investor, where the perceived complexity of being bogged down with selecting and monitoring of investments is not desired. Instead Sagicor will invest the funds in a risk-free offering. In exchange for this level of comfort and assurance, members are prepared to trade the potential of higher returns over the period for solid, consistent returns.

These simple but effective approaches will allow members to save for retirement in a tax efficient manner and create the desired wealth on the journey to successfully achieving their retirement goals.
