

JOHN EDWARD CLARKE

APPOINTED SAGICOR GROUP AUDITOR

John Edward Clarke

Dodridge Miller, President and Chief Executive Officer for Sagicor Financial has announced the appointment of John Edward Clarke as Group Chief Internal Auditor, effective June 1, 2007.

John Edward Clarke was educated at The Lodge School in Barbados and is a Fellow of the Chartered Association of Certified Accountants.

He started his Accounting career at Pannell Fitzpatrick & Company (now Ernst & Young) and later joined H Jason Jones & Co. in Barbados before moving to Texaco Eastern Caribbean Ltd.

Mr Clarke transferred to Nigeria to join the Texaco Upstream Operations before moving to the USA in 1998 to work in the Worldwide Upstream Accounting Group in Houston.

Following the merger of Chevron and Texaco in 2001, he relocated to San Ramon, California to join the new company, Chevron Texaco in their Exploration and Producing Finance team. Clarke was the Chief Finance Officer of Goddard Enterprises Limited prior to joining Sagicor.

He is married to Elizabeth and they are the parents of two children, Sheena and Bradley, both of whom are attending college in California, USA.