When you think of life insurance, we often think of death benefit, but it is so much more than that. When we choose life insurance, we are choosing family. Choosing the right life insurance for you and your family is an important financial and life decision. It is necessary that as we evolve, that we also reassess our insurance coverage. Life insurance is indicative of planning – from buying a home, paying for college, saving for retirement to the unplanned of lifestyle illnesses and death. It is the unplanned that usually comes with big price tags. There are many options to choose from and you may even sign up for multiple options based on what you can afford. Life insurance is more than health insurance as it has additional benefits including paying off debts, taking care of family even when you are long gone. Sagicor understands the importance of life insurance and created multiple packages for you to explore and make the best decisions for you and your loved ones

We have compiled a list of our packages for you to explore;
